Meet Miss Shannan!

Miss Shannan started dancing at the age of four at Darlene's Dance Studio where she took tap, ballet, jazz and gymnastics. By her freshman year in high school, she joined High Point High school Dance Company. This is where she started taking lyrical and modern classes. She stopped dancing at the studio due to the hours required to commit to the High Point Dance Company.

After high school, she still wanted to keep dance in her life so she returned to her home studio. Darlene's Dance studio had transitioned into Starbound Dance Center and owned by Ms. Darlene's sister - Ms. Carol. It was Ms. Carol who gave her the opportunity to teach her own classes.

Shannan found an even greater love and passion in teaching. After her childhood studio permanently closed its doors, she started teaching at her current studio - Making Moves Dance Collective (MMDC) where she teaches Tap, Jazz, Lyrical and Acro. She also taught Acro at Joyful Motion Dance Studio.

She has watched many of the students she trained, including her own two daughters, grow up in dance. She has trained dancers who have gone on to schools like Duke Ellington School of the Arts and her students grow up in the studio including her own two daughters.
